"Jaime was easy to work with, contacted out venue directly to organise and played all the tunes we selected!"

"Jamie is friendly, professional and most importantly, very good at what he does. His prices are reasonable and following our wedding day we received many compliments regarding the variety of music he played and how well he played them. I would recommend Jamie to any couple getting married."

"Friendly and professional and incredibly talented musician who entertains to the highest standard. Jamie is without doubt the best wedding entertainer we have ever seen. The service he provides prior to the wedding is great and this continues throughout the lead up to the special day, he adds a personal touch which makes what he does extra special. Def book him for your wedding!!"

"Unlike some suppliers, Jamie indulged my need to get everything organised sooner rather than later. We planned every detail together and on the day it went perfectly. Putting your faith in another person on such an important day is daunting, but I never doubted Jamie's professionalism once!"

"We were not keen to have a band or musician at our wedding (most we have heard have been pretty naff and tacky, and it didnt fit with what we wanted) however upon hearing Jamie play at a friends wedding in June I was blown away, his eclectic playlist spanned from classics to modern indie tunes, truly something for everyone, and his laid back ecoustic vibe really added a special something to our drinks reception. I have had found him earlier in my planning I would have had him in the evening too!"

"It was truly a magnificent day for which Jamie provided the perfect soundtrack. To this day, we still have friends and family that talk about Jamie and say how good he was. We can not recommend Jamie enough, he truly is absolutely fantastic as what he does, we could not have asked for anything more"

"Jamie was an amazing entertainer at our wedding! He got everyone up dancing at multiple points in the evening...even those who wouldn't normally dance! He performed 3 long sets which were all equally as good as the last ! I would recommend Jamie to anyone and I know several of our guests took Jamie's details for their events in the future. Really nice guy and we really enjoyed his touch of playing a song directly to each of us in turn - great idea and really special. Jamie to win!"

"Really got the party started during our welcome drinks and made the atmosphere really special"

"Jamie's talent and large repertoire of songs meant he sang through from our wedding ceremony to the evening reception with ease - every one of our guests loved him and haven't stopped talking about him! Our wedding would not have been the same without him - he was the best google search we did!"

"Jamie provided a great package which inc. everything that we required; live music, lighting, equipment and even the disco for after. His price was competitive even with the travel to our venue in the south of France. His style in music and presentation is excellent. Prior he provided great comm, service and advice. On the day we had terrible trouble with a freak storm and our 400 year old venue flooded, Jamie kept his smile and moved areas and kept on playing, he really did save the evening!"

"Jamie played at our drinks reception and during our ceremony. He was fully prepared, there was no stress and was dressed appropriately. The music he played during the ceremony, was played beautifully setting the tone we wanted and made it even more special. Everyone complimented him. Thank you Jamie"

"Jamie played during our wedding drinks and throughout the wedding breakfast. He done us a great favour by learning the theme tune to only fools and horses to play during our arrival into the wedding breakfast. The songs he played we suitable to our crowd and everyone was telling me what a fantastic addition he was to the wedding. He played fantastic and sung wonderfully. Will recommend to others!"

"Fantastic guy! Fantastic music! Punctual and smart Faultless performance."

"Jamie could not have done more for us. He travelled out to our venue and was so welcoming to all guests even my niece who was stroking his leg as he played. Jamie had a wide selection of music and was very keen to make sure all were catered for. He interacted well with the guests and was a highlight"

"Jamie McGuire made our wedding day! He is the best performer we have ever had the pleasure of watching and listening too. His professionalism is second to none, his repertoire is too good for words and the way he created the perfect atmosphere was well, just perfect. Our guests were equally just as amazed at his ability and happily stood and listened to him playing, drink in hand and often singing along. We couldn't recommend Jamie highly enough! What a safe and very talented pair of hands! Xxx"

"We were so close to not having any live music, and it was the best decision we made. Jamie played throughout welcome drinks, dinner and whilst evening guests arrived, he was the talking point of all guests. A pleasure to deal with too, always quick to reply and nothing was ever too much. Superstar!"

"From initial contact to the day itself, Jamie was/ is a true professional. The variety in his repertoire is superb and by far the best of any other music acts we have heard play at other weddings. He was instrumental in creating the fantastic atmosphere at our wedding- perfectly selecting songs during the drinks reception and party. His act is first class. The fact that one of our guests booked him for their wedding after hearing him play at ours is testament to all of the feedback above! :-)"

"Jamies was outstanding and provided world class entertainment of the highest order - he was very flexible in choice of songs and was happy to learn new ones. He was able to be flexible on the day when weather forced us inside and did everything with ease and professionalism. All the guests commented on how great the music was and he had the whole room singing and dancing - and that was before the drinks had been served! Made the day perfect, thank you"

"I booked Jamie after seeing him at a friends wedding and it was certainly a decision well made. From the very first email he went above and beyond, he also recommended others and even helped arrange my wedding cake. I sent Jamie a list of songs I loved, and he managed to learn one especially for day which really made it special. Our guests loved him & we will recommend to others for future occasions. He gave great customer service from start to finish!"
